

Andy has a belief that the quality of leadership can be used to empower and support people to make sustainable change. As a teacher and leader he has always received support and challenge from colleagues that has helped him grow. Andy has always been keen to push the boundaries of what he can achieve. This has led to significant innovation within his schools resulting in accreditation as a Lead Practitioner for Curriculum for the SSAT and delivering at local & national conferences.

Andy is currently Associate Headteacher, at Witton Park Academy, after serving many years as Assistant Headteacher at a large mixed comprehensive school followed by 5 years as Deputy Headteacher. Andy has significant experience of teaching Science for twenty years and is still passionate about day to day teaching.

As a Specialist Leader of Education, Andy is able to offer support in:

- All aspects of senior leadership
- Whole school self-evaluation
- Leadership of curriculum
- Leadership of change
- Pastoral and curriculum leadership
- Science
