

Karen has a strong personal belief that the quality of leadership can be used to empower and support people to make sustainable change.

Karen has always been keen to push the boundaries of what she can achieve. This has led to significant innovation within the schools and authorities she has worked in resulting in accreditation as a School Improvement Partner.

Karen is currently a Head-teacher, at St Mary Magdalen's CE Primary School Accrington, after serving many years as KS1 /KS2 class teacher, Deputy Head-teacher, LA consultant, LA adviser and Associate Head- teacher. She also currently mentors newly appointed Head Teachers

As a Specialist Leader of Education, Karen is able to offer support in:

- All aspects of senior leadership
- Whole school self-evaluation
- Leadership of curriculum
- Leadership of change
- Pastoral and curriculum leadership
- Analysis of in school data and ASP and ISDR