

Jennifer Wozniak – SLE for Teaching and Learning and MFL

Jennifer has recently joined ELTSA as a SLE having been a very successful SLE for Preston TSA for a number of years, she has an excellent track record and has supported a number of schools with both teaching and learning and in MFL.

Jennifer started her career at a high achieving 11-16 comprehensive school in Preston in 2008 as a MFL Teacher (mainly French with some German). Since then she has been teaching French at KS2, 3 and 4. She absolutely loves teaching languages across the three key stages and being able to share expertise with Primary and Secondary colleagues.

In 2013, she was appointed Lead Practitioner for Teaching and Learning, which she personally finds captivating. She has recently moved school and now works at a successful Accrington school as Assistant Headteacher for Teaching and Learning and teaches French and Spanish.

Jennifer has a passion for teaching and an eagerness to share her knowledge and expertise in her school and with other schools in both MFL and T&L in general. She strongly believes in sharing good practice, which has the capacity to improve our performance as individuals exponentially.

She enjoys using various teaching and learning techniques which motivate and drive pupils. Jennifer has experience of supporting colleagues at different stages of their career, with very diverse needs. She has also led numerous Teaching and Learning training in both Primary and Secondary schools and organised a very successful T&L conference for the past five years.

As a Specialist Leader of Education, Jennifer is able to provide support in:

- Any aspect of MFL
- Any aspect of whole school Teaching and Learning
- Quality assurance
